He promises to work for the residents regardless of political affiliation. The Council will work to resolve issues brought to their attention during the campaign. Mr. Quintana is committed to this Council. Thank you to Jack Ciattarelli for administering his oath of office today. Mr. Quintana ends by wishing everyone happy holidays. Mr. DiPiazza thanks the Clerk and Deputy Clerk for their work, as well as Administration and Patricia Smith. He thanks his family for their love and support, and is grateful that his ancestors chose to take a chance on the “American Dream” decades ago. Mr. DiPiazza describes the many Paramus experiences that have shaped him into who he is. He is grateful that Paramus is so diverse, and acknowledges the different faiths that call Paramus home. He is also proud that Paramus is a hardworking community, who all have the same goal of providing for their family. Paramus is defined by all the moments that bring the community together, both good and bad. The town is filled with residents who have inspired Mr. DiPiazza to do his very best over the next four years. Mr. DiPiazza sees this Council as a Governing Body that can agree, when even the State of NJ and Washington are struggling to do so. There is much that remains left to do and he is committed to being accessible to residents. He urges residents to tell him how he is doing when they see him, and he will commit to improving. He thanks the residents again. God Bless American and God Bless Paramus.
