A Building Permit is required to install an awning.

7'-0" minimum (8'-0" preferred) to the underside of the valance.

8'-0" minimum 12'-0" maximum to underside of metal framework.

Details to properly secure the awning to the wall as per NIPCA 701. All canopy materials must flame resistant.

As per BOCA Code requirements.

8'-0" minimum 12'-0" maximum to underside of metal framework.

If signage is to be on the awning, the entire surface area of the awning is to be calculated as sign area.

If lighting is used it must be shielded so as to direct the lighting downward back lighting of awning is not permitted without zoning approval.

if standards are used they must be 44" minimum apart and cannot obstruct egress or Fire Department access.

As per BOCA Code requirements.